SHERRICK WILL GET NEW TRIAL

Supreme Court Reverses Decision in Sherrick Case This Forenoon

New Trial is Ordered and He Will be Released on Bond

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

The Supreme Court of Indiana this forenoon handed down a decision reversing the judgment in the case of David E. Sherrick, former Auditor of State, who was convicted in the Marion county criminal court on a charge of embezzling funds of the State. The decision of the court orders a new trial of the case.

Sherrick has been in the penitentiary at Michigan City for several months, having been sentenced to a term of from two to twenty-one years' imprisonment.

He will be brought back to Indianapolis at once, and held subject to the order of the criminal court. He probably will be released on bond.

The court holds that Sherrick did not embezzle State money, as the money belonged to the insurance companies and not to the State. Judge Hadley handed down the opinion.

CLERK CAN NOW SEE MUCH BETTER

Morristown Hotel Clerk Goes Against Fake Eyesight Game

Claiming to be an eye specialist and with reference from some of the best physicians in the State, which later proved to be forgeries, Dr. Burns, succeeded in defrauding Carl Bacons, clerk of a Morristown hotel of about fifty dollars.

Burns claimed to be able to restore failing eyesight and for $100 agreed to cure Bacons' mother. Several treatments were given the lady and the swindler demanded a portion of the money. It is said he secured about fifty dollars in this manner and then skipped.

HEY! ANOTHER STORY ABOUT OLD ALFALFA

Herman Miller Realizes About $900 Off of Ten Acres This Season

And there is more today about alfalfa.

Herman Miller, living northeast of this city, cut five crops of alfalfa off of ten acres this season and harvested one ton per acre on each cutting. Mr. Miller considers the alfalfa worth $18 a ton, and too valuable to sell, on account of it being excellent feed for stock. The ten acres netted him about $900.

SALE OF LIVERY STOCK ATTRACTS LARGE CROWDS

The sale of the W. S. Cover $10,000 livery stock—the old George Caldwell livery stock—was sold at public auction today, and was one of the largest attended sales ever held in this county. Good prices were realized for all the stock and vehicles offered, and many liverymen from the surrounding counties attended the sale. Arrangements were filed in various livery stables and the whole had the big circus day.

FARMERS MAY ORGANIZE

For Protection of Game—Associations Being Formed Over the State

Farmers in several sections of the State are organizing Game [Protective] Associations and the members of these organizations have signed agreements to permit no hunting on their premises for the next five years. The first association of this kind was formed in Jennings county and the territory covered by the agreement embraces nearly 10,000 acres. State Game Warden Sweeney has agreed to stock the protected territory with squirrels, quail and pheasant, where needed. The Association will raise a fund with which to prosecute trespassers. It is hoped that this organization will be the means of making all kinds of native game plentiful in that section within the next five years.

BODY WILL ARRIVE NEXT WEDNESDAY

All That Remains Mortal of James Carter Will be Buried in this City

The remains of James Carter, who died in Riverside, Cal., will arrive in this city next Tuesday or Wednesday, and will be buried in East Hill cemetery. Mr. Carter was ill forty-two days, and the last word that his mother, Mrs. Isaac Miller, received from him (by mail) before the telegram came, with the sad intelligence of his death, was to the effect that he was gaining in strength and on a rapid road to recovery.

At the time he took sick, Carter was a member of the Riverside fire department, and was receiving a salary of eighty dollars monthly. He had been in the West about two years, and made many friends there.

Deceased was a member of the Odd Fellows in Riverside, who gave him every possible means of aid, and it is likely that one of the members of the lodge will accompany the remains to this city. The local lodge will have charge of his funeral here.

Carter carried $3150 in insurance policies: a $1000 policy in the Prudential, in this city, $3000 in the Fraternal Brothers of California, and the Odd fellows pay $150 in death benefits in Riverside.

Besides his mother, he leaves one brother and a sister, Eddie Carter, of this city, and Mrs. Bertha Peck, of Moscow. Mr. Carter was twenty-three years of age and belonged to the Christian church here. Rev. W. W. Sniff will officiate at the funeral service.

GAVE PROPERTY TO CHURCH FUND

Now the Heirs are Filing Suit to Have the Will Declared Null and Void

A complaint to contest a will was filed today by Harriet Hughes et al. vs. the Trustees of the Presbyterian church of Kingston, Decatur county, and Rufus B. Hamilton, executor.

Mrs. Hughes, who is a resident of this city, living on West Tenth street, was a niece of the late Morgan J. Crail, of Decatur county, and together with another niece and nephews, the only direct heirs of the deceased, Herminie Snoddy and William R. Atchinson, are now trying to have the will set aside.

They allege that Crail was of unsound mind at the time the will was executed, and that undue influence was brought to bear on him while in this condition. They claim that the pretended will was written by Rufus B. Hamilton, and that Mr. Hamilton is named as executor of it, and further allege that his name was attached to the will as a witness, and that he is a member of the Presbyterian church, all of which they claim is justifiable reasons for having the will declared null and void.

Mr. Crail died in April, 1906, and left an estate valued at $2000. Treman & Ewing, of Greensburg, and Watson, Titworth & Green, of this city, are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

We imagine a man in a dry goods store feels like a woman would feel should she go into a saloon.

HINSHAW'S WIFE KILLED HERSELF

Such is Startling Information Given Out by One of Hinshaw's Attorney's

Unpublished Story Which Hinshaw Unbosomed to His Lawyers Before First Trial

The following story regarding Hinshaw, the paroled alleged murderer, who was sent back to the Michigan City prison for breaking up the home of Sheriff Freeman (for two days). This version of the affair was never given out until yesterday, when the Greenfield Star published the following story, which was probably the real facts in the case, as it comes from one of the attorneys first employed by Hinshaw. The story follows: It is reliably reported since the recent exposure of William E. Hinshaw, that the real facts of the death of his wife did not come out in his trial. When the attorneys decided upon the line of defense, it is said that the burglary theory was decided upon after the consideration of two other theories. The other theories were suicide and accident.

When the neighbors reached the Hinshaw home at Belleville on the night of the tragedy he told them that his wife and himself had been shot by burglars, and that is the theory upon which his defense was made.

It is, however, reliably reported that Hinshaw told his attorneys what he said was the real truth about the matter, and his story is as follows: I was holding a revival meeting at one of the churches of my circuit several miles from my home at Belleville. My wife was attending the meetings and we had been driving home each night after services. On the fatal night the weather had become much colder, and I advised my wife to stay with some of the congregation as it was too cold for her to drive home, and I would go home and look after the house and see that nothing was damaged by freezing. She was jealous of me and another woman, and attributing to my suggestion some sinister motive, she declared that she would go home with me. I readily consented to her doing so, and she complained of me all the way home. After we reached home, we continued the quarrel, she becoming so persistent even keeping it up after we retired, when I turned my back too her and went to sleep. About midnight I was awakened and found her standing over me with a revolver in one hand and a razor in the other, declaring that she was going to kill me. I sprang up and grappled with her, when she slashed me with the razor and shot me with the revolver. I caught her arm to keep her from shooting me again and in the scuffle that followed the revolver was discharged the bullet striking and killing her.

With my wife dead, I did not know what to do. So I went outside, discharged the revolver two or three times and cried "Burglars." When the neighbors came I told the burglar story.

It is said that Mr. Hinshaw told the above story to his lawyers, and that Duncan and Smith, his leading attorneys, preferred to make defense upon the burglary theory.

This is believed to be a story never before published in relation to this celebrated case. It comes to this paper from the highest authority, an attorney as distinguished as any in Indiana, who was to have appeared for the defense, but withdrew when the other plan of defense was determined upon.

DECATUR MEN WOULD GIVE WIVES A DIME

Greensburg Review: A number of women of Arlington, Rush county, have been husking corn in the field in order to raise money to help out their church. The idea of such a thing! Think of a Decatur county farmer permitting his wife or daughter to husk corn! Why, our farmers would just go down in their jeans and hand over a ten spot and tell the good women to call again if that wasn't enough.

Durability of Concrete. In these days of increasing use of concrete for building purposes, it is interesting to recall the fact that the Pantheon, in Rome, about 2,000 years old, is covered by a dome over 142 feet in diameter, which is cast in concrete in one solid mass.

PASTOR KNEW HOW

Tolled Church Bell Till People Came to Church, Then "Roasted" Them

Last night, says a Monday Bluffton special, the tolling of the bell in the Wesleyan Methodist church, on the south side of the city, brought a large crowd to the church, believing either some member had died or some calamity had befallen the city. When they arrived the minister, the Rev. J. W. Mow, announced to the congregation that fifty members of the congregation must have died, as they had not attended church or served the Lord under his guidance, and he intended preaching their funeral service. He then spoke to the congregation on the sin of not attending services regularly.

CORN GOSPEL WELL RECEIVED

Much Interest is Manifested in "Corn Salve" Given Out by the Lecturers

The Seed Corn Special from the agricultural department of Purdue University arrived in this city yesterday evening about 6 o'clock.

The lecture given in the assembly room at the court house on the care and selection of seed corn, and was attended by about one hundred farmers, including the members and officers of the Rush County Farmers Institute.

T. A. Coleman, of this county, who is a lecturer on the corn special, presided at the meeting. Prof. John T. Haines, of Frankfort, made a brief address, regarding the proper care of seed corn, and gave to raising their corn if they wished to get results.

G. I. Christie, who has charge of the experiment station at the university, spoke to the farmers present, and cautioned them against buying seed corn in various parts of the country. He advised them to select their seed from their own crop, and if this was not possible, then to buy of a neighbor. He said it was a sad mistake to worship the false gods of inflated reports of large yields in other parts of the country, and then be induced by flattering circular to purchase seed corn from the growers of these "enormous yields." For, he declared, seed that would prove prolific in one State might be a sad failure if planted under different conditions, and in a different soil in another part of the country.

Such interest was taken in the meeting and the "corn gospel," which the speakers preached, impressed the auditors. Miss Jessie Kitchen played an instrumental solo on the piano, and Prof. T. A. Craig sang a solo. Both numbers were well received. Several of the lecturers that are aboard the Corn Special, made brief addresses.

CURRENCY REFORM

Bankers and Dealers Make a Move In This Direction.

Washington, Nov. 16.—The plan of currency reform agreed upon by the committee of the American Bankers' association and the New York Chamber of Commerce, upon which they have been at work for four days, has been made public. A committee was appointed to which was intrusted the drafting of a bill for presentation to congress, which will embody the ideas of the bankers' committee.

The plan agreed upon contemplates the issue under government supervision of credit bank-notes by national banks equal to 40 per cent of their bond-secured circulation, subject to a tax of 2 1/2 per cent per annum; an automatic increase of credit notes under certain conditions; a further issue of credit notes equal to 12 1/2 per cent of a bank's capital at a tax of 5 per cent per annum; the establishment of a guarantee fund for the redemption of credit notes of failed banks; provision for active daily redemption of credit notes; repealing existing law limiting the retirement of bond-secured notes to $3,000,000 per month; and the deposit of all public moneys above reasonable working balances in national banks without collateral security on which the banks are to pay 2 per cent.

In the report the statement is made that there is unanimity of opinion that changes in the existing bank-note system are imperative, required, and that the present volume of bank-notes is wholly unresponsive to the demands of commerce. It does not, the report says, expand with the need for currency in the crop-moving period, causing stringency, nor contract when the uses for currency are less extensive, causing redundancy.

WILL HOLD A MEETING HERE

Experiment Station of Purdue University Will Hold District Meeting Here

Committee of Representative Farmers are Appointed and Organization Effected

When the Corn Growers and Stockmen's Convention was held at the Purdue University last January, under the auspices of the Experiment Station of the University, over eleven hundred farmers from all parts of the State were in attendance. Of course the faculty at the school was elated over the interest manifested in the movement by the farmers, but were unable to accommodate such large numbers. And for that end, a step was taken in this city last night, to systemize the work by dividing the State into districts, where conventions can be held for a period of six days. The University will furnish experts and lecturers for these conventions, and all of them will be under the general supervision of G. I. Christie, who is in charge of the experiment station.

Rush county was chosen first, as the faculty deemed it fitting and appropriate that the movement should be launched here, inasmuch as this county was the banner county of the State last year in the matter of raising hogs and corn.

And Rushville offers excellent railroad facilities, and is the logical place for such a convention. The district will cover several counties.

The work of effecting an organization was completed last night, at the banquet, after the corn lecture in the court house. Several members of the University faculty spoke on the subject, going into detail, as to the plans they had in mind, showing they have given the subject much thought—and all the local farmers in attendance were enthusiastic over the new movement. Prof. John Haines and Prof. A. T. Wiancho of the faculty, made brief addresses. President D. T. Maish, of Frankfort, of the Corn Growers Association of Indiana, and Vice President Davis talked over the plans with local men interested. G. I. Christie, of the University, launched the project.

The date of the meeting to be held here will be determined later, and the convention, which will last throughout an entire week, will attract many people to our city. The work of the convention will be exactly like the work as heretofore carried on at Purdue University experiment station annually.

A committee of the representative farmers of this county were selected, after much care and deliberation, and the parties in charge are to be commended for the choice they made. Each township in the county is represented in the following committee: Dr. F. G. Hackleman, B. F. Martin, Thomas K. Mull, O. J. Myers, Clyde Henley, C. M. Oldham, A. W. Riggs, Herschel Daubenspeck, Walter Patton, P. T. Innis, T. J. Thrall, and Frank Sample.

The committee will meet soon to organize, and to push the movement forward.

GHASTLY SIGHT FOLLOWS ACCIDENT

Horse Scares at Automobile and Rears Up, Coming Down on Iron Post

A most ghastly sight followed an accident which occurred this morning about 10 o'clock on South Main street. Frank Gosnell had his brown driving mare hitched to a post in front of Dr. Hall's veterinary hospital, when an automobile came in the New Salem road, and the horse became frightened.

It reared up and in coming down, the horse struck the iron hitching post and it went through its body, near the right flank. The horse hung on the post, suffering untold agony, and Elijah Pea Jr. put it out of its misery by striking it on the head with a sledge hammer. The horse would have probably lived an hour otherwise.

Mr. Gosnell says he has been offered $200 a number of times for the mare, and would have sold her at any price.

INDOOR PLEASURES

Thanksgiving Marks Extreme Boundary Line Between Seasonable Recreations

Our Thanksgiving festival marks the extreme boundary line between outdoor and indoor enjoyment for thousands of people. Those who are in any measure handicapped by feeble health, the great contingent who are on the borderland of age, and the multitude of busy folk who work for their living, take their holidays before Thanksgiving, and settle down to the coziness of the fireside for the long winter evenings as November reaches its closing hours. We hardly think about the winter evenings until Thanksgiving is over. Then the household becomes full of mysterious and delightful planning for the coming season; there are gifts to be made, many of them by the hands of women and children, here are sociables and receptions ahead and, in home and society alike, the pressure of much that is exciting and interesting begins to be felt.

FIRE WAS OUT, SO WAS THE DOG

When Fire Department Arrived at Home of John Blacklidge, Last Night

A dog, a rubber hose, a small stove and some bed covering were the cause of much commotion in John Blacklidge's house on North Main street last night.

The dog struck the hose in running near the stove and jerked it loose from the pipe. A flame of gas shot out, setting the bed covering on fire, and only the timely arrival of a member of the family prevented what might have been a serious fire. A small place in the carpet was burned and the floor scorched. The ignited bed clothes were thrown out the window and John Monjar, on seeing the flames, thought the house on fire and turned in an alarm from box 45. When the fire department arrived, they found the family "putting out" the dog.

WILL TAKE A NEEDED REST

Rev. George L. Mackintosh of Indianapolis Elected Acting President of Wabash.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Nov. 16.—Yielding to the entreaties of his family and friends rather than to his own wishes, Dr. William P. Kane has decided to give up his work in connection with the presidency of Wabash college, temporarily at least, and will leave today for a quiet resort in the Ozark mountains, near Hot Springs, for a period of complete rest. Mrs. Kane will accompany him, and they may return in the spring, but not sooner.

Several weeks ago President Kane had an attack of tonsillitis, which not only arrested his improvement, but caused a reappearance of symptoms which caused so much alarm at the time of his collapse last commencement. His original ailment was diagnosed as a valvular attack of the heart, but complications followed and a serious kidney trouble is now involved.

The board of college trustees met in special session here yesterday, pursuant to the president's call, and he presented the matter asking for an indefinite leave of absence. It was granted, and on Dr. Kane's recommendation Rev. Geo. L. Mackintosh, D.D., pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church, Indianapolis, and professor of psychology and Biblical literature in the college, was elected acting president. Dr. Mackintosh is an alumnus of the college and served on the board of trustees until he became a member of the faculty. He is popular in college circles.

BOARD OF HEALTH ISSUES AN ORDER

Dr. Lynn, secretary of the Board of Health, says that he wishes to inform parties living on the west side of Main street, north of Eighth, to refrain from allowing the overflow of their cess pools from running in the ditch at that place. He says that numerous protests have been made against it.

PEOPLE TRAVEL ON LOW RATES

Railroad Men Say That the Cut in Fare Increases Travel

And a Lower Rate Would Nearly Double the Passenger Business

Local passenger traffic on all railroads has increased noticeably since the new rates went into effect. Persons who thought it a luxury to ride for any distance on the steam roads are now taking advantage of the reduction in passenger rates to travel on these roads. A railroad man made the statement that, according to his belief, the railroads would find the reduction of fares to be a paying investment. He claims the railroads will carry more than enough people at the reduced rate to counterbalance the receipts from passenger traffic under the old rates, and the expense of operating under the present rate is not increased in the least.

"I believe," continued the Republican informant, "that if the railroads of the country would establish a flat two-cent rate it would be the most profitable move ever made. In Ohio the railroads are operating under a two-cent rate law. The roads opposed this measure before it became operative, but there is not a road of any consequence in Ohio that has not profited to a large extent by this new rate law. There was more travel in Ohio on steam roads the past season than in any other similar period in the history of the State. The two-cent rate would work the same way in Indiana if adopted by all the roads."

DO YOU WANT PRETTY EYES?

It Requires Care and Patience to Acquire and Preserve Them

The woman who wants pretty eyes will not have them circled with dark lines. Nor will she have great eye sacs under her eyes. The pretty girl's eyes are never heavy in the lids. They are never laden underneath with great bags. They are never red as to the lashes and the brows are never unruly.

On the contrary, the eyes of the pretty girl are of the shining variety, beautifully clear, and of the kind which can open wide and look one right in the face.

To get eyes like this, one must not abuse the eyes. The girl who sews late at night, the girl who lets her lids and lashes become neglected, this girl cannot hope to have pretty eyes.

The eyebrows should not be neglected. The woman who wants nice eyebrows can heat a little almond oil and apply nightly to the eyes with a small brush. In this manner the eyebrows can be influenced. Often they are inclined to grow staggly. But by painting them with a brush, regularly they can be trained into shape.

SMALLEST COUPLE EVER MARRIED IN SHELBY

According to the Shelbyville News, the smallest couple ever married in Shelby county, were married at Shelbyville Thursday night.

The contracting parties were Patrick Banner, an Irishman, thirty years of age, and Mrs. Josephine Mitchell, thirty-five years of age.

The man in question was scarcely five feet tall and the woman just topped three feet eight inches.

Mr. Banner weighs one hundred and fifteen pounds and the bride tips the beam at just eighty-five pounds.

The woman has been married before, her husband dying in September, 1905.

The bride could not look over the counter at the clerk's office and in sitting down in a chair the bottom of her feet do not strike even the first round. She is no taller than an eight-year-old child although bearing the form and queenly shape of a fully developed woman.

If the Ute Indians, as it is claimed, have been placed on barren allotments through the dishonesty and cupidity of government officials, it should be carefully and thoroughly investigated. The Indians should be treated fairly and liberally, since the United States have practically purloined their lands and possessions.

INTERESTING DECISION

Attorney-General Cuts Short Terms of Many County Officers.

Indianapolis, Ind., November 16.—Attorney-General Miller has rendered an opinion cutting short the terms of scores of county officers who expected to serve until the first of 1907. He held that the law enacted by the legislature of 1903 to make uniform the beginning of the terms of all county officers, is unconstitutional and that the officers elected November 6, will take office as soon as the terms of those now in office expire. In substance, his opinion is that the terms of those now in office will expire at the close of the period they were regularly elected for and that the action of the legislature in giving them until January 1, 1907, so that the terms of their successors might be uniform, is unconstitutional. Mr. Miller has been deluged with requests from newly elected officers as to when their terms begin. His decision affects judges, county treasurers, auditors, recorders, clerks, sheriffs, surveyors, assessors, coroners and prosecuting attorneys. The law of 1903 was enacted with the view of eliminating the confusion caused by the terms of the county officers expiring at different times. It was thought that if all took office the same day that the county's business would not suffer so much as under the present system. The law extended the terms of most of the men now in county offices and cut short a few. Mr. Miller declares that the act of 1903 is dependent on the first section, a part of which permitting certain officers to serve out their full terms was held to be unconstitutional by the supreme court about a year ago. With that provision eliminated Mr. Miller says that the law is invalid. He declares that a careful study of the law is convincing that it cannot be enforced. It is very likely that many officers will resist the opinion and will ask the supreme court for further construction of the law.

A score of private bankers held a secret conference here last night to organize for protection of their interests during the coming session of the legislature when a bill will be introduced at Governor Hanly's request providing for strict state supervision of private banking institutions. The private bankers were busy throughout the day among the members of the state bankers' association urging them to assist in fighting the prospective legislation. It was said that the private bankers will raise a large fund to support a lobby to look after their interests. Most of the members of the state association seemed to feel that the legislature will be forced by public sentiment to enact a law for state supervision of private banks, but the private bankers intend to have a hand in shaping the legislation. At the conference a plan was considered for fighting the efforts of the State Board of Tax Commissioners to force the private bankers to pay tax on all their assets, the same as a merchant does on his. Under a decision of Attorney-General Miller the law of 1891 permitting the private bankers to deduct their deposits from the tax duplicate is unconstitutional and the private bankers are now confronted with a prospect of being compelled to pay back taxes on deposits for fifteen years.

State Statistician Stubbs has issued a bulletin showing the size of the small vegetable, melon and tobacco crop in Indiana this year as compared to 1905. The tobacco acreage in 1906 was 11,596; the yield, 8,864,909; acreage in 1905, 13,972; yield, 9,155,772 pounds. The four counties having an acreage of more than 1,000 acres are: Spencer, 2,325; Switzerland, 2,176; Warrick, 1,714; Jefferson, 1,286. The four counties that produced over 1,000,000 pounds were: Spencer, 2,206,000; Dearborn, 1,152,600; Switzerland, 2,003,000; Jefferson, 1,149,000. The potato crop was about the same as last year, the harvest reaching 5,005,227 bushels, a decrease of 30,000 bushels as compared to 1905. The crop of tomatoes, peas and melons was larger than last year.

DRASTIC ACTION

Has Been Taken by the Government Against the Standard.

TO DISSOLVE BIG TRUST

Petition in Equity Against the Standard and Its Seventy Constituent Corporations Filed.

This Asks That Combination Be Declared Unlawful and Enjoined From Future Operation.

St. Louis, Nov. 16.—The United States government has made the initial move to dissolve the Standard Oil so-called monopoly by filing in the United States district court in St. Louis a petition in equity against the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and its seventy constituent corporations and partnerships, and seven defendants, including John D. Rockefeller, William Rockefeller, Henry H. Rogers, Henry M. Flagler, John D. Archbold, Oliver H. Payne and Chas. M. Pratt, asking that the combination be declared unlawful and in the future enjoined from entering into any contract or combination in restraint of trade. The suit is brought under the Sherman anti-trust act, which the Standard and its constituent companies and the seven individual defendants are charged with violating. Attorney General Moody says criminal prosecution is reserved for future consideration.

Frank B. Kellogg of St. Paul, Minn., special assistant to Attorney General Moody, brought the petition to St. Louis. The document was filed with the clerk of the United States circuit court by the government's local representative, United States District Attorney D. P. Dyer, and Special Counsel Kellogg.

After the filing of the petition Judges Banborn and Adams of the United States courts to abolish the upon petition, issued an order granting the federal officers authority to immediately serve notice upon those defendants who are not residents of the judicial district in which the suit has been filed. The petition contains 194 pages of printed matter, or about 100,000 words, and an additional 84 pages of exhibits, consisting of by-laws and minutes of Standard Oil meetings and organizations, and a map showing the retail prices of oil in every state and territory of the Union.

The investigation into methods pursued by the Standard Oil company began early in 1905, and the results were laid before congress last May by President Roosevelt, who accompanied the report by a special message denouncing the apparent methods pursued. The president asserted that the time that suits would be instituted in the United States courts to abolish the combination and the filing of this suit marks the initial step.

The defendants are entitled to one month in which to enter their appearance and sixty days in which to file answers to the allegations in the petition. They also have the option of filing a demurrer to the bill.

The bill reviews the history of the Standard Oil company from 1870 down to the present; from the time when it was a simple conspiracy to its formation as a holding company under the laws of New Jersey, with an aggregate capital now of over $200,000,000 and controlling more than 90 per cent of the oil business in the United States. In reciting the remorseless operation of the trust, it is declared that ever since August of this year the Standard has refused to transport oil of other companies except in such large quantities as to completely prevent independent producers and refiners of oil from using its service, and it is further charged that the trust has forced independent refineries now doing business in Pennsylvania and Ohio and procuring their crude oil through the Standard Oil company's pipe lines to sell all their export oil to the Standard, thereby eliminating their competition. It is declared that this contract was procured through threats.

It is charged that the Standard, through its influence by reason of its large tonnage, sells substantially all the lubricating oils to the railroads of the United States; that the prices are from 50 to 100 per cent more than the prices which other manufacturers are willing to sell the same, and these excessive prices are willingly paid by the railroads, in order that they may get the trust's business and that this is substantially the payment of rebates.

The total value of all property controlled by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, except such as may have been purchased from earnings, is $69,020,798, according to its own valuation. It is declared that upon this capital the Standard, from 1882 to 1895, paid $512,940,084 of dividends and has created a large surplus. It is alleged that its property at the present time exceeds the value of $200,000,000. Its annual dividends during the last nine years have run from 33 to 48 per cent in addition to the surplus.

MAYOR INDICTED

Schmitz and His Boss Ruef Charged With Grafting.

San Francisco, Nov. 16.—The grand jury brought five indictments against Mayor Eugene Schmitz and "Boss" Abraham Ruef on the charge of extortion. On each charge the bail was fixed at $10,000 and bond at $5,000.

The first alleged crime was in connection with the Poodle Dog restaurant, and the indictment cites that Ruef and Schmitz demanded money from the proprietor, Tony Banco. As this demand was made, it was said, on two occasions, two indictments were returned. Extortion believed to have been practiced upon Ed Marchand, proprietor of Marchand's restaurant, is the basis of two more indictments. A demand made upon Joe Malfanti, another restaurant man, is the alleged offense on which the fifth and last indictment was found.

In the presentation of the indictments against Mayor Schmitz and Political Leader Ruef, Assistant District Attorney Heney has fulfilled the promise that the first action taken by the grand jury would be to accuse Abraham Ruef of felony. This prophecy was made in open court two weeks ago, but nothing was then said that Mayor Schmitz would be drawn into the scandal. The indictment of Ruef was expected by the public, but they were not prepared for immediate indictments against the city's chief magistrate, who is now on the Atlantic, returning from a visit to Europe. For nearly two years the alleged objectionable relations between the French restaurants and the municipal administration have been a subject of severe criticism and public denunciation.

More Trouble for Standard.

Findlay, O., Nov. 16.—Criminal prosecution of the highest officers of the Standard Oil company will be the next move of Prosecutor David. Mr. David says he believes he has sufficient evidence to warrant him in bringing all of the officers and directors of the controlling corporation, the Standard Oil company of New Jersey before the court. John D. Archbold, Henry H. Rogers and William Rockefeller are among those mentioned by the prosecutor in connection with his latest move.

HAVE YOU CATARRH?

Breathe Hyomei and Relief Get and Cure—Sold Under Guarantee

If you have catarrh, with offensive breath, burning pains in the throat, coughing, raising of mucous, difficulty in breathing, sneezing, huskiness, discharge from the nose, tickling and dropping at the back of the throat, especially at night, coughing spasms, etc., begin the use of Hyomei at once.

Its healing medication will give relief in a few days and its continued use will completely drive all catarrhal germs from the system.

Hyomei contains Nature's healing oils and balsams, the germ-killing properties of the pine forests and goes with the air you breathe to the most remote cells of the respiratory organs, searching out and killing all catarrhal germs and soothing and healing any irritation there may be in the mucous membrane. It is easy and pleasant to use Hyomei, pleasanter than most of the stomach dosing, as its healing air is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler, which can be carried in the purse or vest-pocket, and carries medication to just the spot where relief is needed.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1, extra bottles, if needed, 50 cents, and F. B. Johnson & Co. give their personal guarantee with every package, that money will be refunded unless the treatment cures. This shows their faith in the power of Hyomei to cure catarrh.

A DANGEROUS MISTAKE.

Rushville Mothers Should not Neglect Kidney Weakness in Children.

Most children have weak kidneys. The earliest warning is bed-wetting. Later comes backache, headache, languor.

'Tis a mistake to neglect these troubles. To blame the child for its own distress. Seek to cure the kidneys—

Save the child from deadly kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Mrs. Charles Petet, of 27 North Vine St., Shelbyville, Ind., says: I was sent to a drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills to give to my little boy, who was afflicted with nocturnal weakness of the kidneys, caused by an attack of scarlet fever. There has been no cessation of the trouble until I gave him this remedy, although we have given him other medicines and perscriptions, which failed to relieve him. Doan's Kidney Pills brought quick prompt relief that I highly recommend them for children with weak kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, New York, sole agent for the United States.

The Young Man's Store

We don't believe that another store in town caters to the clothes-wants of young men in just the same way, or nearly so well as we do.

The demand of the young man for clothes original in design, appreciably more radical in cut and livelier in pattern than the clothes made for older men, is met in this store in a way that no other clothier in town attempts.

Garson-Meyer Clothes for young men are distinctly young men's clothes. They are just the sort of clothes that spirited young fellows demand—smarter, more dashing in cut, and better made than any other ready-for-service clothes produced for the same sort of wearers.

BY THE WAYSIDE

"Could you recognize a relative whom you had not seen for twenty-two years by a habit—not one like folks wear, but a 'bad habit'?" Well that is what an elderly gentleman did who visited this city last week, from the State of Washington.

He came to visit with a nephew whom he had not seen or twenty-two years—a teacher in the local public schools—and at the station directed to his home on North Perkins street. There he met his nephew's wife for the first time, who received him, and informed him that "the boy" would soon be home. But the old gentleman was impatient, and inquired the route his nephew usually took in coming home to his meals. There was only one, on Perkins street to the court house, she told him, and he immediately set out south on Perkins. With a scrutinizing eye he searched the countenance of every man he met, looking for "that" family resemblance. Finally he came upon a young man that looked the part to a T. He had the general appearance and bearing of a school teacher, he walked like one, and more, he looked like his relative. Just as he was about to greet and surprise him, he noticed that the young man was chewing tobacco. Gazooks!—he was mistaken. "No siree Bob, no relative of his ever chewed tobacco, and he was willing to wager that he was wrong in thinking the man 'this boy' he was soliloquizing on was the face to face with a nephew—and the nephew was his nephew."
